

Reunion Weekend 2018
June 1-3, 2018

Reunion Volunteer Introduction

Thank you for serving as a reunion volunteer for the University of Richmond! Reunion volunteers help to foster class unity and a spirit of celebration, leading to broader participation in Reunion Weekend.

Goals for Reunion Weekend 2018

- Reconnect alumni with the University of Richmond!
- Raise awareness about the importance of alumni participation in giving through the Reunion Class Gift Campaign.
- Communicate Spider Pride, both about alumni accomplishments and the institution as a whole.

Why Come Back?

Reunion Weekend provides a truly special opportunity to reunite with old friends, network socially and professionally, explore new campus facilities and reconnect with the University of Richmond. And, the parties are memorable!

Why Give Back?

There are as many reasons to give back to the University as there are alumni. Your goal, as a volunteer, is to encourage classmates to reflect on their time at Richmond and to make a gift that brings them personal satisfaction – whether in appreciation for the past or to help current Spiders prepare for the future. Additionally, our alumni giving rate is a critical factor in determining national rankings and in securing grant funding.

The Reunion Class Gift Campaign is important to the University because alumni often feel a greater desire to give, or give a larger gift, during their reunion year. We hope that after celebrating a reunion, alumni will continue to make an annual gift to the University..., which guarantees a bright future for Richmond.
