REUNION
2018
DEAR FELLOW RICHMOND SPIDER:

I look forward to seeing you for Reunion Weekend, June 1–3. Reunion 2018 will honor undergraduate alumni in class years ending in 3 or 8, though all alumni are invited back! Mark your calendar. Make your travel plans. Register now.

There will be events honoring all classes celebrating reunion and special gatherings for the Class of 1968 (the 50th reunion class) and the Class of 1993 (the 25th reunion class).

Other highlights of the weekend include:
• “From the Nest Egg to the Frying Pan” with Dr. Ronald A. Crutcher, president of the University of Richmond
• Receptions with the deans of Westhampton College, Richmond College, Jepson School of Leadership Studies, Robins School of Business, and the School of Arts and Sciences
• President’s Breakfast
• Fireworks over Westhampton Lake
• On-campus housing in the residence halls
• Board of Trustees and University of Richmond Alumni Association Board of Directors Golf Tournament

Whether this is your first visit to campus in 50 years or you were on campus last week, you will find there are interesting and exciting programs, and most important, many opportunities to catch up with your Spider classmates and friends.

To register for Reunion Weekend, use the enclosed registration form; call 800-480-4774, ext. 8; or register online at reunion.richmond.edu by Friday, May 18. Also, be sure to note the weekend housing information and make your reservations early.

Don’t forget to make the Jepson Alumni Center, #49 on the campus map, your first stop when you arrive on campus. The building will serve as the information center for the weekend where you will pick up your Welcome Packet, which includes registration materials. To view or download the most up-to-date campus map, please visit richmond.edu/visit.

I look forward to seeing you at Reunion 2018.

Christopher A. Carlson, R’81
President
University of Richmond Alumni Association

Be sure to dress in comfortable clothing and shoes for the tour. Advance registration is requested.

“FROM THE NEST EGG TO THE FRYING PAN”
Jepson Hall
2–3 p.m.

Dr. Ronald A. Crutcher, president of the University of Richmond and a professional musician, will speak about the leader of the most prominent string quartet in Europe in the early 19th century, Ignaz Schuppanzigh and the Schuppanzigh Quartet, and their role in cultivating the string quartet (particularly the string quartets of Beethoven) as a viable medium of performance. Often referred to as Beethoven’s “private quartet,” the Schuppanzigh musicians debuted nearly all of Beethoven’s 16 string quartets — performing entirely at the will of the famed, yet imperious composer. The lecture will include recorded examples of Beethoven’s string quartets. Advance registration is requested.

Due to summer renovations on the second floor of the Commons, the bookstore will temporarily be located in The Cellar on the first floor of the Commons.

WEINSTEIN CENTER FOR RECREATION AND WELLNESS

Get in your workout during Reunion Weekend. For reunion celebrants who want to hit the gym during Reunion Weekend, you can use your reunion nametag as a FREE guest pass. Enjoy swimming, weightlifting, jogging on the indoor track, or taking a break in the sauna at the Weinstein Center. A parent or guardian must accompany and supervise children under 16 years of age at all times. All visitors will be asked to sign a waiver before using the facility. For general facility policies and hours, visit the Recreation and Wellness website at recreation.richmond.edu.

REUNION HOUSING

Stay on campus — reservations must be received by Friday, May 18.

Housing in the residence halls is much the way you remember it (single bed[s], desk, chair, bureau, closet, and shared bath). We will provide bath towels, pillows, and sheets. Please bring blankets, your cell phone, mirror, and a robe (remember, shared bathrooms in the residence halls!). For safety and security, names must be provided of everyone staying with you in the rooms you reserve.

$45 per bed/per night (available Thursday, Friday, and Saturday nights)

Please note: We will make every effort to house classmates near each other. However, if a class area is filled, we may have to place some classmates on other floors or residence halls. As a result, we will assign rooms and residence halls after May 18.

Also note:

- Most available accommodations will be suites. If you have classmates who you’d like to share a suite with, please make note of their names on your registration form.
- Residence halls can be noisy. If you’d prefer to stay in a quiet residence hall, please indicate that preference on your registration form.

Stay off campus

The Westin Richmond has been designated as the official “Alumni Hotel.” There will be shuttle service from the hotel to campus on both Friday and Saturday. To receive the special rate, reservations should be made by Friday, May 18.

We encourage you to make your reservations as early as possible. To make your reservation, please call 804-282-8444 or 888-627-7786 and ask for the University of Richmond reunion rate.

Registration is Important
In order to attend reunion activities, you must complete a registration form and return it to the Office of Alumni and Career Services no later than Friday, May 18! Caterers, transportation services, and others require head counts. If you do not preregister, there is a chance there will not be room for you at the events you wish to attend.

Reunion Weekend Costs
Putting on a weekend of events for hundreds of alumni and guests is an enormous and expensive undertaking. The individual event prices help to offset the costs for food, beverages, entertainment, etc. We strive to keep the fees low so as many people as possible can enjoy their Reunion Weekend of fun, renewed friendships, and celebration of the University of Richmond experience.

Reunion Weekend Photography and Videography
Videos and photographs taken during Reunion Weekend will be used in University publications and on the website. If you do not wish to be included in videos or photographs, please alert the photographer and/or videographer.
